

I strongly support New Jersey's current Do Not Call law and am looking to my representatives to ensure that this law remains in effect. Unsolicited calls are an assault on my emotional well-being. Consumer's must retain the CHOICE as to whether they permit this intrusion into their lives.